Reymersholms IK

Reymersholms IK was founded in 1899 and is one of only six Stockholm clubs to have played at the very top. They had a tough start to their season, but in the last few months they have shown the form that most people expected of them before the season began.

THE MANAGER'S FINAL WORDS....

Well noone needs to tell anyone of the magnitude of todays game, the facts are a win for Långholmen could result in us being crowned champions of Div 4 this afternoon as long as we better the score of Marieberg who today take on Boo FF away from home.

From the footballing side we go into the game missing the ever dependable Macker and Colm due to suspension but we have missed these players before and still picked up points so our squad size will hopefully prove its worth again. The lads have trained well this week and seem hungry for the challenge. The defeat to Järila last week was tough on the lads with them having played three games in six days and that is alot whatever standard you play at. Reymers come here this afternoon having had a good season and will finish in the top half of the table regardless of todays result. They will offer strong competition for us but having seen the lads train this week I know we are up for it.

On a personal note, this will be my last game in charge of the first team today and I am looking to sign off with a victory. I would like to thank all that have come and watched us play this season and I know that myself and Stuart have felt extremely proud to have received such magnificent support from the crowds that have come week in week out.

Onwards and upwards!
/Chris Latham

Chairman's view..

I will let the managers tell you about the first team, but regardless of the outcome of today's matches, 2009 has been a huge success for Långholmen FC. The main goal for the club this season was to get the 1:st reserves up a level. Job done two weeks ago! Then last week, the 2:nd reserves won their league in style by beating their main rivals 6 - 1. The ladies' team had six (!) players in January, but thanks to relentless work from Kjerstin, Tina and later Nisse we have managed to put a team of eleven players on the pitch every week. That's a success in itself, but they have also played in a much tougher league this year than last and they have made the club proud. Our three Korpen sides have had mixed fortunes, but the main purpose of Korpen is to enjoy football, and I know they have done that. The "3.5 Ultras" have been truly fantastic this year. The amount of people that have followed us to the outskirts of Stockholm week in and week out, come rain or shine, is truly amazing. It is very nice to see, and hear, what Långholmen Football Club means to so many.

So a big Thank You and Well Done! to all who have been involved in making this season what it has become; sponsors, players, managers and coaches, supporters and last, but not least, the committee.

I'm getting used to winning leagues every Sunday... Go Stripes!
/Mats/Chairman

This week in history

A quick look into some important happenings in the last week in history...

The Beatles released their Abbey Road album on Sept 26th 1969. Microsoft releases Internet Explorer 4.0 and Zlatan Ibrahimovic was born on 3 October 1981 in Malmö.

On Wednesday 29th of September the Stripes faced Tynnered at Kärrtorps IP in front of a crowd of 52 and 3 dogs. A good performance against a resilient homeseid meant that Långholmen, thanks to a goal from Colombian Striker Dave Molina, won the league title and were promoted to Division 6. On the down side Dennis Foley was forced to leave the field of play with a suspected broken wrist.
