Favourite other club: Barcelona
Who has been the biggest influence on your career so far:

The biggest influence on my career so far has been my family I think for supporting me.

What are your expectations of Långholmen FC this season :

My expectations for Långholmen this season is that I hope we play some great football to enjoy.

If you could play in the same team as any player in the world who would it be and why? :

I would play with Barcelona alongside Messi and Zlatan, the reason is because they are the best.

Apart from your girlfriend MALIN which other person would you like to take on a nice romantic date ?

Haha, I would like to take Emma Stone from the movie Zombieland on a romantic date in that case. But I really love Malin and hope we will live in a small red house and have lots of little babies one day.

How do you prepare before a big match?:

Before a big match I like to take it easy and just relax, eat a nice breakfast or lunch and just focus.

Which position do you think Långholmen will finish this season ?

I always hope for victory but I would think a position somewhere in the middle of the league is good.

If you were a female would you date handsome goalkeeper Edwin Bergquist?:

Haha, of course I would! Who wouldn't?

Which team do you think will win this seasons WC in South Africa?:

I hope/think that Spain will win the WC in SA.

Tyresö FF

Tyresö go into today's game with only one point from their opening matches. They fought back from a four goal deficit against Assyriska last weekend but unfortunately conceded a late goal to lose the match 5-4. The men's team at Tyresö are at the moment sitting in the shadows of their ladies' team who have taken the Damallsvenskan by storm this season. They are a young team with an average age of 22 years. They are one of the clubs fancied for the title and will be only too keen to get into winning ways and that it starts with a win at Essinge IP this afternoon. Players to watch out for are Dario Ljuboje who has joined the club from Hammarby and Mattias Andersson formerly with Boo FF.

Classic match remembered

LÅNGHOLMEN 13 V SARAJEVO 0

Alby International Pizzeria Stadium, 14.00 - 5th May 2005.

UNLUCKY 13 FOR SORRY SARAJEVO

AT A QUICK GLANCE THE SCORELINE seems to be a misprint, but as a witness to this game believe it was not. On paper this looked to be a tricky fixture for the stripes but in reality to say they won at a canter is a severe understatement. The Sarajevo men had a total of 3 attempts on goal the whole match whereas the visitors could easily have notched over twenty goals. The first attack of the match was by the hosts after some sloppy play by captain Robbie Graham, but a badly placed shot proved no trouble for Mole. The landslide started in the 11th minute when a defence splitting pass from Robbie G found Artoo, whose killer shot burst the vegetable bag. A minute later and a carbon copy move between the same two players made it two. Quite clearly the homesters were in a state as 3 minutes later when a Brad throw in was met beautifully on a half volley to make it 3-0 and effectively kill the game as a contest. Goals by Chris, Brad and Artoo made it 6 by half time and one couldn't help feel sorry for the young keeper recruited from the local kebab shop only minutes before kick off. The away fans in the large crowd of 27 were now anticipating 10 goals but were overjoyed when the stripes indeed notched up 13. Next up was Thomas Karlsson with a finely taken goal on 65 mins and then goals by Artoo, who grabbed a total of six, Chris, on a hat trick and a header by defensive stalwart Michael O'Sullivan finished off a fine day for the Juventus lookalikes. Fine performances by the ever present Andrew Startup and Mike as well as Tobbe and Patrick. New boy Dennis is also proving a revelation in a side that from the neutrals point of view have a realistic chance of finishing high in the league standings. Two elements of the game impressed, the fact that the stripes battled on and even after half time with such a cushion kept on the pressure. The other was the good spirit in which Sarajevo took their defeat. Nick Short, with his polished head, said after the match that the season starts now and that the team should not be too complacent after a victory against a very poor team. Crowd: 27 Ref watch: Had a hard time keeping up with the goal tally and twice asked what the score was. ■

Max factor: Assistant Manager Max hallberg tells you how it is.

"SO FAR WE HAVE ONLY MANAGED to get one point from our first three matches, but if you consider that two of the opponents in those games, Assyriska and Konyaspor are at the top of the league at this moment, perhaps you should revalue our performances. We work hard with the squad to minimize our mistakes during the games, especially losing the ball in bad positions, at this level you get punished if you do that. All the same, we are adapting to the higher pace and I am confident in the squad and that we will improve our game more and more as we go along. We played a solid game when we got a draw against Vagnhärads in the previous away match and with a little bit of "luck" we could have had all three points from that one. Today we welcome Tyresö FF and it is my honest belief that we can take our game one step further and keep it together for 90 minutes and take our first victory of the season! Enjoy the game and thank you for your support!" ■

Division 3 at a glance..

THINGS ARE CERTAINLY HEATING UP a bit in this division. Långholmen kicked off the last round of games away to Vagnhärads and a team that was missing a number of players came away with a deserving draw. Spårvägen and Huddinge both made it two wins on the trot and Älvjö overcame bottom club Panellinos. The most entertaining game was at Bollmoravallen where Tyresö game back from 4 goals down at half time to make things all square against Assyriska, but it ended in heartache for the home side as the visitors snatched a late winner. Lets hope Långholmen can record a first victory of the season today. ■
