Chris Allen

Age: 22

Position: Right wing, forward, goalkeeper.

Who has been the biggest influence on your career this far in?

It has to be my mum!! The reason as a teenager I was with Ipswich Town and a single mum of 4 took me and my brothers 4 times a week to Ipswich and back! I never missed a training session! She is fantastic!

What is your favourite other team apart from the Stripes?

Ipswich Town (tractor boys)

Tell us about the best goal you have scored to date

I have 3...#3 vs Kungsängen (youtube it if you ain't seen it) #2 The header against Reymersholm to make it 3-1 CHAMPIONS but #1 was when Ipswich played Inter Milan in Uefa Cup we got to play their Academy and I scored a Darren Anderton style volley in off both posts and in to make it 3-3!!

If you could play alongside any player in the world who would it be and why?

Great question! So many legends but I would say BECKHAM, in his prime. With his passing ability just slipping me in behind the defence everytime would be pretty good!

You played superbly in goal against Vagnhärads recently, why did you choose not pursue goalkeeper as your position?

I played in and out of goal as a kid but when i got to 15 one training game for a laugh I went up front against the year group above and scored a hat-trick and never looked back! There is no better feeling than seeing the net ripple especially when you've hit it!!

List 4 people you would like to go for a drink with and why?

Paulo maldini, The man is a football legend and i would love to here his footballing stories. Kate Beckinsale, in my eyes the most beautiful woman and her voice mmmm.. Lee Evans, Just the funniest bloke in the world would love to hear him joke about everything and anything. Jose Mourinho, just for him to give me some tactics using beer mats, salt shakers and peanuts would be awesome!!

You have played at the club for a couple of years now, do you understand anything Ciaran McCormack says?

Who's Ciaran? :)

Panellinos IF

Panellinos, like their hosts today, were formed in 2002 and have also climbed up the league system quickly, reaching Div 2 in season 2009. They are a club who are focusing on a good youth organisation and have currently eight teams playing in various leagues. It has been a disappointing start to the season for them with only one point gathered from the opening five matches. Thanks to the Greek roots embedded in the club they will fight to the very end and promise to give Långholmen a difficult match today.

Phil's match day quiz

Ok, here's 5 more brain teasers for you to think about, supplied by our very own Phil Hopkin. The answers are on the back page. No cheating.

1. Man City manager Roberto Mancini won how many caps playing International football for Italy. Was it 36, 56 or 86?
2. Fernando Torres joined Liverpool FC in 2007 from which La Liga club?
3. Which current Superettan team were Swedish Allsvenskan champions in season 2001?
4. 47 000 fans was the average attendance for which of last season's English CHAMPIONSHIP clubs?
5. Dutch International Dennis Bergkamp joined Arsenal FC in 1995. Which manager signed him?

Classic match remembered

LÅNGHOLMEN FC 2 LOS COPIHUES 1

ON A DAY THAT WAS MORE SUITABLE for kite flying, the home team opened up there account for 2007 league football. It would be a lie to say that this was a great game of football as both sides struggled to come to terms with the swirling wind in the opening fifteen minutes. The Los Copihues goal saw more of the action with Deri Phillips squandering a couple of chances. It was rather unusual to see captain Robbie Graham so quiet on the pitch for the home team as his side had no joy in the final third of the field. The away team shocked the large crowd by taking the lead. Hector Gonzalez was given too much space on the flank and his pass was met by star striker Tino Lopez who side footed the ball past Jefferson in goal. Within a couple of minutes Jefferson was in the middle of the action again when a superbly taken free kick was parried onto the bar. Nick Shorts men managed to come more into the game and really should have gone in at the break with a couple of counters to their name, instead they had to settle for one. Young Oscar Hentmark supplied a fine ball into the box and after some hesitance in the Copihues defence Andy O'Sullivan managed to get onto the end of it and square things up. Långholmen with the wind behind them failed to capitalize on their opponents difficulty to deal with high balls. Lofted balls into the box would of surely paid dividends in these blustery conditions. Fifty four minutes on the clock and the Stripes went ahead when Nino Zouagui steered in a Mark Evans free kick, the keeper was unfortunate in the fact he made a fine save before it fell to the feet of Zouagui. The days biggest sinner was Evans when he could of sealed things two minutes later when his team were awarded a spot kick, when Hentmark was pulled down, a dismal effort was saved by Sergio Martinez and instead of placing the ball past the keeper Evans went for power and the ball ended up near to the corner flag. The away team finished the stronger of the two but time and time again Ciaran McCormack mopped up all that came his way and proved that he will be a fantastic addition to the club. The Los Copihues central defender Raymundo Estevez was sent off for a second bookable offence with six minutes remaining to round off a miserable day for his team. Manager Nick Short was not too generous with praise for his players after the match stating it was one of the worst performances he had ever seen. A bit harsh considering the conditions during the match.

Crowd: 87. A very vocal support today and a great bit of banter from the Långholmen Ultras.

Ref watch: This really looked like it was the man in the middles first match of the season. zHis linesman was the best entertainment of the day by getting involved in a verbal exchange with some away supporters.

Stripes man of the match: McCormack. The big man was solid at the back and his timing was perfect throughout.

All the best / Scot James, Stripes Press Team.

Division 3 round up

THE FANS WHO MADE THE SHORT TRIP down to Aspudden last Thursday will not have been disappointed with how the team came back from a shock start to the match. The lads showed a lot of character in pulling themselves back into the match and were unlucky not to win in the end. Assyriska and Konyaspor continue to dominate the league, the Assyrians were 3-0 winners against todays opponents Panellinos in a hard fought match. Tyresö and Enhörna both drew their home matches and Spårvägen had an excellent 2-0 away win at Huddinge. There are only a few points seperating the bottom club from the mid table teams and both sides here today will be keen to get a first 3 pointer. ■
